The hotel's staff are a close-knit team. Our team's core values are professionalism, service and hospitality, complemented with a large serving of ambience and cheerfulness. All your events in a unique setting

Did you know that the unique 4* Van der Valk hotel Mechelen used to be the city's largest swimming pool? 'Den Ouwen Dok' is a grand building with architectural features and a practical layout.

'Den Dok' opened its doors in 1924, a few years after World War I. People went there to swim in the large swimming pool or engage in several other sports.

The bathhouse also had a prominent place in the impressive building. It is where local families could enjoy a nice hot bath. These bathrooms have been largely preserved and are located in the same hallway as the meeting rooms. Some of the bathrooms are now storage areas, some are small boardrooms, and others still boast one of the original baths.

You had to go through the changing cabins to get to the swimming pool. During the renovations, we took great care to preserve this space in all its glory.

Drinks were also available, of course. In the exact same spot where all kinds of drinks used to be served, we now welcome our guests with a friendly smile. The reception area is now a warm and inviting place with a very practical layout for all your events.

The Wohrmann family have also made sure that the key component of this building is still the eye-catcher of the new hotel today. The old swimming pool has now been transformed into a beautiful ornamental pond. If you book one of our 56 Pool View rooms, you can relax on your balcony admiring the pond with its aquatic plants, fish and magnificent fountain. If you look closely, you can still see the pool's authentic elements.

Van der Valk hotel Mechelen offers a wonderful mix of period and modern features. The young team brings a breath of fresh air in service and hospitality. The entire hotel has been finished to an excellent standard with great attention to detail.

It is our pleasure to invite you to come and enjoy the lovely ambience of the Van der Valk hotel Mechelen during a wonderful stay.
